

ENERGY FACTS CROSSWORD

ENERGY FACTS CROSSWORD

ACROSS

1. We measure energy consumption in Btu, which stands for ____ thermal units.
(Hint: Think Prince William & Kate)
6. Wind turbines use wind to make _____. (Hint: Ben Franklin had the key)
8. Gasoline comes from crude _____.
9. Solar power is energy from the _____.
11. Refineries have to meet _____ standards. (Hint: think green!)
12. Air pollution is a contributor to this environmental issue called The _____ Effect.
13. Oil was formed from the remains of animals and _____.
14. Crude oil is sent to this factory-type place to be separated into petroleum products.
15. Some oil wells are on land and some are _____. (Hint: think the opposite of "over")

DOWN

2. The simplest and most abundant element (Hint: think of water)
3. Energy of motion is _____ energy.
4. The sun is a big ball of hydrogen and _____ gases.
(Hint: it also keeps balloons afloat)
5. Dishwashing liquid and deodorant are both this type of product.
7. Most of the oil consumption in the U.S. is used for _____.
(Hint: think planes, trains, and automobiles)
10. Hydropower is the energy of moving _____.
12. Fuels like diesel and _____ have been improved to release less pollution

Challenge: Create your own crossword puzzle, word find or other game to demonstrate what you have learned about energy.

Visit www.shell.us/energizyourfuture to test your energy knowledge. © 2013 Shell Oil Company.